

Fire & Rescue Suppliers Association

What they say about FIRESA

'The ODPM welcomes the establishment of FIRESA...and encourages key suppliers and manufacturers to consider joining this organisation to facilitate dialogue between FiReBuy Ltd and industry.'

National Procurement Strategy, ODPM, November 2005

'The potential of a single voice for this important sector of industry which is responsible for safety critical equipment for both the public and fire fighters is extremely welcome.'

Ken Knight, Commissioner LFEPA

'Please accept my congratulations on the formation of the Association which I am confident will be helpful to both the fire and rescue supply trade and indeed to the Service as a whole.'

Peter Holland, CFO Lancashire Fire and Rescue Service

'I would wish you and your new Association every success.'

Alan Doig, CFO Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service, then President CFOA

'Our liaison with FIRESA, through David Chisnall [Chair] and Gary Smith [Vice-Chair], is another priority.'

Graham Maltby, Executive Director, Firebuy

'I would encourage those companies who have not yet joined FIRESA to do so as this will be the principal conduit by which Firebuy will liaise with industry.'

Terry Brewer, Chief Executive, Firebuy

'I would urge suppliers to the fire and rescue services to consider joining FIRESA to ensure that the goods and services you provide to the fire and rescue services help us to meet the aims and objectives of the service.'

Paul Fuller, Chair, National Procurement Board

'I would also like to offer my best wishes to all FIRESA members and I look forward to working with them in the future.'

Jim McKenna, Technical Director Fire Vehicles and Emergency Response Equipment, Firebuy
